condition of sale

Condition of sale

1. Lots are put on sale by Trionfante S.r.l.s at a public auction. Trionfante S.r.l.s acts as exclusive agent in its own right and on behalf of each seller whose name is registered at Trionfante S.r.l.s The seller is responsible for the items on sale and Trionfante S.r.l.s accepts no responsibility with regards to the buyer other than that which may derive from its position as agent.

2. The items are sold to the highest bidder for cash: in the case of disagreement between more than one high bidder, the disputed item may, at the sole discretion of the auctioneer, be relisted for new bidding during the same auction. When making a bid, the bidder accepts full personal responsibility to pay the price agreed .

3. Trionfante S.r.l.s reserves the right to withdraw any lot from the auction. During the auction, the auctioneer has the right to separate or join lots and to change the order of their sale.

4. In the case of two identical offers for the same lot, the offer will be awarded to the offer which was received first. Trionfante S.r.l.s reserves the right to annul the sale contract of the assigned lot.

5. Trionfante S.r.l.s acts as agent for the seller and declines responsibility deriving from descriptions of the items in the catalogues, brochures or any other such descriptive material: the descriptions as stated above as with all other illustrations are purely indicative. All auctions are preceded by an exhibition in order to allow a thorough examination of the authenticity, condition, origin, type and quality of the items. After the assignment of a lot, neither Trionfante S.r.l.s nor the seller can be held responsible for flaws with regards to the condition, for mistaken attribution, origin, authenticity, weight or quality of the items.

6. The starting price relative to the possible auctioning of each lot is printed under the description of said lot and do not include the Auction commission.

These estimates are nevertheless made well before the date of the auction and may therefore be subject to modification. The descriptions of the lots in the catalogue may also be subject to revision via communication to the public during the auction.

7. Trionfante S.r.l.s may require payment in full of the final price, in any case, full payment in Euros must be made within seven days of the assignment. Having paid the final price, the purchaser must collect the lots bought at his own risk, responsibility and expense within seven days of the purchase. At the end of said period, Trionfante S.r.l.s will be exonerated of all responsibility with regards to the purchaser concerning storage and possible deterioration of the items.

Any transport costs will be the responsibility of the purchaser. If specifically requested by the purchaser, and at their risk and expense, Trionfante S.r.l.s may arrange packaging, transport and insurance of the lots.

8. In the case of non-payment, Trionfante S.r.l.s can sell the lot at a private sale or subsequent auction, and in any case retain as penalty any deposits paid.

9. Purchasers are required to uphold all laws and regulations in force with regards to the items declared to be of particular importance and for which the procedure of declaration was begun in accordance with article 6 es. Of the legislative decree 29 October 1999, n°490, with particular regards to article 54 of the same decree. The export of goods by the purchaser, resident and not in Italy, is regulated by the aforementioned decree and furthermore by customs, currency and tax regulations in force.

The approximate cost of an export license is ? 200,00. Waiting time is about 45 days following the application to the export office of the 'Ministero dei Beni Culturali'.

The application for an export license is to be sent to the Ministry on payment of the lot and with explicit written authorization of the purchaser.

Trionfante S.r.l is not held responsible in any way to the purchaser with regards to any eventual export restrictions concerning the lot assigned, nor for any license or permit which the purchaser of a lot must acquire in accordance with Italian law. In the case of the State exercising the right of withdrawal, the purchaser cannot expect any reimbursement from Trionfante S.r.l.s.

10. All information regarding hallmarks of metals, carats and weight of gold, diamonds and precious coloured gems are to be considered purely indicative and approximate and Trionfante S.r.l.s cannot be held responsible for eventual errors contained in said information nor for the falsification of precious items. Some weights in this catalogue have been ascertained by way of measurement. This data is to be considered approximate and must not be considered as exact.

11. These Conditions of Sale are automatically accepted by all those participating in the auction and are available upon request to any interested party.

Any dispute is to be under the jurisdiction of the court of Palermo.

* Once a catalog has been proofed the terms cannot be edited.
